

Stockholm Water Symposium
Key sessions to cover for information collection

	Walter Rast	M. Nakamura	N. Kimura
18 August 2008	Morning
	Conflicts over Water and Water to Solve Conflicts		○
	Planning for Sustainable Sanitation in Cities	○	△
	Lunch
	How can we promote sustainable water practices and adoption of new and innovative systems?	○
	Approaches for Bridging the Sanitation Gap in Asian Cities		○
	Afternoon
	The Global Corruption Report 2008: A Call to Action
Water for Growth and Development and Poverty Alleviation (WfGD)		○
Water Supply and Sanitation: After Disaster and Conflict Situations in Fragile States		○	△

The Impact of WASH
Interventions on Children

Transboundary Aquifers in Africa: Management and Protection of Under Cover
Resources

Improve Food Security ?
Combine Productive Sanitation,
Conservation Agriculture and Water Harvesting

Evening

Findings from the Global Public
Policy Network on Water
Management (GPPN)

Improving Local Water
Governance and the Access of the Poor to Water: Experiences from Egypt, Jordan and

DEWATS ? Why Not Boost a Proven Solution to the Sanitation Gap?

Responding to the Evidence?
Aid and the Sanitation

